6. Citizen Comments

- Mark Rainey, Ward 2, thanked everyone who was involved in Winter Fest. However, he stated that the tent at Harmon Park ruined the ice and it was there for four days. He said straw is now frozen into the ice. Mr. Rainey said the rink and ice should be highlighted, not hidden, and that the tent should have been placed on the parking lot.
- Karen Vavreck, Ward 2, Jade Pennig, Ward 3, and Laura Zanmiller, Ward 1, provided information about the food drive to raise enough food and funds to match West St. Paul's zip code. They said Samantha Green would have been here, as well, but that she is ill. Jade Pennig read off the locations in West St. Paul that currently have food bins and said the list is continually growing. Laura Zanmiller said there is a competition between the West St. Paul and South St. Paul City Council's. Karen Vavreck said the band "Hot Brockoli" will be playing at Dunham's on March 9 and that there is also a food drive collection bin at Dunham's.
  - Mayor Napier said the challenge will be presented to Mayor Francis of South St. Paul to see which community can raise the most food and money for Neighbors, Inc. who is currently at risk of losing their funding. He said the winning City will get to brag and the losing Council will have to wear the opposing high school team's hockey jerseys at their next Council meeting. He said both the Council and Planning Commission are on board with the challenge. He also thanked Karen Vavreck, Jade Pennig, Laura Zanmiller and Samantha Green for their hard work on the food drive.
- Karen Vavreck talked about comments that were made at Winter Fest and said she is concerned that these comments may affect the food drive. She said she would like to see a public apology from this individual.
  - Mayor Napier said he received emails, calls and was confronted about this. He said he reached out to South Robert Street Business Association (SRSBA). Mayor Napier said SRSBA sent a letter to the City Council and stated that they do not support one person's comments and that it doesn't reflect their entire group. He said he had a great conversation with this individual from SRSBA who reached out to him. Mayor Napier said he appreciates SRSBA and said they have strong leaders. When we represent groups or businesses, Mayor Napier said we need to be careful with what we do and say. He said he appreciates SRSBA's swift action with their letter to the City.
- Christopher Hadden, Bidwell Street, said he supports the YMCA and their current location. He also said other cities do not have the same sense of community as West St. Paul.
- Steve Santoni, South St. Paul, talked about the need for sidewalks on Marie Avenue between Robert Street and Oakdale Avenue.
